

Bible Caddie

ABOUT THE SHOW

The Bible Caddie Podcast exists to carry the good news about Jesus to the world of golf! While each episode contains plenty of golf banter and humor, the primary focus of each episode is an interactive Bible Study that is both accessible and relatable. About once a month, we interview a special special guest typically around the topics of golf and faith. Our hope is to introduce many in the golf world to Jesus, and to provide resources for those who already know Him to join us on the same mission. Episodes are released every Friday morning.
